A Weekly Family Dewspaper--- Beboted to Literature, Local and General Aews, Agricultuxe, and the Markets.

BY ROBINSON & LOCKE.

PLYMOUTH, O., FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 8, 1854.

VOLUME II. NO. 7

Selret Doetey.

OUR YANKEE GIRLS.

Let greener lands and bluer skies, If such the wide earthishows, With fairer cheeks and brighter eyes, Match us the star and rose:

The winds that lift the Georgian's veil, Or wave Circassia's curls, Waft to their shores the sultan's sail,-

Who buys our Yankee girls? The gay grisette, whose fingers touch Love's thousand chords so well;

The dark Italian, loving much, But more than one can tell : And England's fair-haired, blue-eyed dame, Who binds her brow with pearls ;-Ye who have seen them, can they shame

And what if court or castle vaunt Its children loftier born ! Who beeds the silken tassel's flaunt Beside the golden corn? They ask not for the dainty toil Of ribboned knights and earls,

The daughters of the virgin soil

Our own sweet Yankee girls?

Our freeborn Yankee girls! By every hill whose stately pines Wave their dark arms above The home where some fair being shines, To warm the wilds with love,

From ba ren rock to bleakest shore Where farthest sail unfurls, That stars and stripes are streaming o'er, God bless our Yankee girls!

Selected Miscellany.

From the New York Leader.

Destruction of the Inquisition of Spain. In 1809, Col. Lehmanowsky was attached to that part of Napoleon's army which was stationed in Madrid. "While in this city," said Col. L, "I used to speak freely among the people about the priests and Jesuits, and of the Inquisition." It had been decreed by the Emperor Napoleon that the Inquisition and Monasteries should be suppressed; but the decree, like some of the laws enacted in this country, upon him from an alley, and made a furious attack. He instantly drew his sword, and rode through the streets of the city, at all hours of the night, to preserve order. He called to them in French, and as they hastened to his assistance, the assailants desisted and took to their heels and escaped, not, however, before he saw by their dress that they belonged to the to the guards of the Inquisition.

The Colonel went immediately to Marshal Soult, then Governor of Madrid, told him what had taken place, and reminded him of the decree to suppress this intistution. Marshal Sault replied, that he might go and destroy it. Col. L. told him his regiment (the ninth of the Polish Lancers) was not sufficient for such a service, but if he would give him an additional regiment, the 17th, he would undertake the work. The 17th regiment was under the command of Col. De Lile, who is now, like Col. L., a minister of the Gospel, and pastor of an Evangelical church, in Marseilles. France. "The troops required were granted, and I proceeded (said Col. L.) to the inquisition, which was situated about five miles from the city. It was surrounded by a wall of great strength, defended by a company of soldiers. When we arrived at the walls, I addressed one of the sentinels, and summoned the holy fathers to surrender to the imperial army, and open the gates of the Inquisition. The sentinel, who was standing on the wall, appeared to enter into conversation for a moment with some one within, at the close of which he presented his musket and shot one of my men. This was the signal for attack, I ordered my troops to fire upon those who appeared on the walls.

It was soon obvious that it was an equal warfare. The walls of the Inquisition were covered with the soldiers of the holy office: there was also a breastwork upon the wall, behind which they but partially year, till death released them from their exposed themselves as they discharged their muskets. Our troops were in the open plain, and exposed to a destructive scale the walls, and the gates successfully offensive to those who occupied the Inresisted all attempts at forcing them. I quisition, there were flues or tubes extendcould not retire and send for cannon to ing to the open air, sufficiently capacious break through the walls without giving them time to lay a train to blow us up. I saw that it was necessary to change the mode of attack, and directed some trees to dead apparently but a short time, while at the bold request, but, with a pair of be cut down and trimmed, to be used as of others nothing remained but the bones, battering rams. Two of these were taken still chained to their dungeons. up by the detachments of men, as numer- In other cells we found living sufferers ous as could work to advantage, and bro't of both sexes, and of every age, from three to work upon the walls with all the pow-score years and ten down to fourteen or the demand, but dared not demur, as by er they could exert, while the troops kept fifteen years-all naked as when born into up a fire to protect them from the fire the world! and all in chains! Here were listening to the conversation. He took poured upon us from the walls. Presently old men and aged women, who had been the walls began to tremble, a breach was made, and the imperial troops rushed into the Inquisition. Here we met with an inmaiden of fourteen years old. The solcident which nothing but Jusuitical effrontery is equal to. The Inquisitor general following the father confessors in their from their knapsacks their overcoats and the Green Bay (Wis.) Advocate, is a robes, all came out of their rooms, as we other clothing, which they gave them to Democrat; his wife is a Whig. Confidwere making our way into the interior of the Inquisition, and with long faces, and their arms crossed over their breasts, their light of day; but being aware of the The wife reversed the engine, changed the you put in any fish skin?" fingers resting on their shoulders, as though they had been deaf to all the noise of the attack and defence, and had just learned what was going on, they addressed them

The who reversed the engine, changed the politics of the paper, and the editor huringut of they but being aware of the day, but being aware of the politics of the paper, and the editor huringut of they beat being aware of the day, but he food given them, and then politics of the paper, and the editor huringut of they beat being aware of the day, but he food given them, and then politics of the paper, and the editor huringut of they beat being aware of the day, but being aware of the politics of the paper, and the editor huringut of they beat being aware of the day, but he food given them, and then brought them gradually to the light, as brought them gradually to the light, as of the paper, and the editor huringut of they were able to bear it.

The who reversed the engine, changed the only beautiful to the light, as brought them gradually to the light, as of the paper, and the editor hurwhich do you like best.

We some fish skin to settle it; and the only them staggering into the river. Between of the name of his favorite candidate from the color.

We some fish skin to settle it; and the only the skin to settle it; and the only them staggering into the river. Between of the name of his favorite candidate from the color.

We some fish skin to settle it; and the only the skin to settle it; and the only them staggering into the river. Between of the home, in time to prevent the removal of the politics of the paper, and the editor hurwhich do you like best.

We let being aware of the skin to settle it; and the only the skin to settle it; and the only

Their intention, no doubt, was to make Col. L. thus describes four of these instru-

ent from others of which I had seen. water be brought and we will watch and The torture of the inquisitor put to death see if there is any place through which it by the dropping of hot water on his head and ordered water to be brought accord- fatal machine. The Inquisitor General mount a pair of spectacles beside, to make fresh pork rather wanted salting. ingly. The slabs of marble were large was brought before the infernal machine him look old enough, had decided to and beautifully polished. When the wa- called 'The Virgin.' He begged to be ex- commence business in a small but growter had been poured over the floor, much cused. 'No,' said they, 'you have caused ing village, in a neighboring county, where was not yet executed. Months had passed away, but the prisons of the Inquisition were still unopened. One night about 10 or 12 o'clock, as Col. L. was walking the streets of Madrid, two armed men sprung at work for the further discovery: the of- -his heart sickened at the awful ficers with their swords, and the soldiers and he left the soldiers to wreak their ter fixed. and put himself in position of defence, and while struggling with them, saw at a distance the light of the patrols—French distance the light of the patrols—French slab with all their might to break it, while distance the light of the patrols—French slab with all their might to break it, while struggling with their bayonets, seeking to clear out the last gamy inflate of that as gamy infla candle-stick one of the candles, four feet as no tongue can describe. in length, which was burning, that I might | When the multitude had retired, Col. L explore the room below. As I did this, caused the library, paintings, furniture, etc. I was arrested by one of the Inquisitors, to be removed, and having sent to the who laid his hand gently on my arm, and city for a wagon-load of powder, he de-> tered a large square room, called the Hall then fell back to the earth a heap of ruin. of Judgment. In the center of it was a huge block, and a chain fastened to it. On this they had been accustomed to place IMPERTINENCE PUNISHED .- We find in called the Throne of Judgment. This the clarity fair in Paris:

hope never to see again.

These cells were places of solitary conquisitorial hate were confined year after meaning. sufferings, and there their bodies were suffered to remain until thay were entirely decayed, and the rooms had become fit for We had no cannon, nor could we others to occupy. To prevent this being the ingenuity of man or devil could invent.

There was everything to please the eye and feet a sem-circle drawn. The victim who gratify the cultivated taste, but where were these horrid instruments of torture of which caused the diabolical engines to which we had been told, and where those dungeons in which human beings were said to be buried alive? We searched in the parlor of garden. He could hear the kettle of boiled victuals; and a nice dangered, and quite frequently are destanded by the kettle of boiled victuals; and a nice dangered, and quite frequently are destanded by the kettle of boiled victuals; and a nice dangered, and quite frequently are destanded by the searched in the play on the plane forte, and sing; he smother was rising from it. Letty dashed troyed by influences so lightly considered.

every seam in the floor to see if the water asto form large forks, and with these pushed lot, he made his daughter a marriage pressort of thing, you know; but what signipassed through, presently Col. DeLile ex- him over the deadly circle. The beautiful ent; and there, on the termination of the fies? We'll try the dessert.'

up. Then the faces of the Inquisitors There were fathers who found their long grew pale as Belshazzar, when the hand- lost daughters; wives were restored to writing appeared on the wall; they trem- their husbands, sisters to their brothers, body said so. bled all over. Beneath the marble slab, and parents to their children, and there now partly up, there was a stair-case. I were some who could recognize no friends with a very demure and sanctimonious posited a large quantity in the vaults belook, said, "My son, you must not take neath the building, and placed a slow match those lights with your bloody hands, they in connection with it. All withdrew to a are holy," "Well," I said, "I will take distance, and in a few moments, the assema holy thing to shed light on iniquity: I bled multitude behold a most joyful sight. bear the responsibility !" I took the can- The walls and turrets of the massive strucdle, and proceeded down the staircase. As ture rose majestically toward the heavens. we reached the foot of the stairs we en- impelled by the tremendous explosion and the accused, chained to his seat. On one the Courier des Etats Unis, an account of side of the room was an elevated seat, a curious incident which occurred at a Inquisitor-general occupied, and on eith- A young lady, Miss A-, celebrated es side were seats less elevated, for the for her beauty and her wit, presided at one priestly fathers, while engaged in the sol- of the tables. Among the throng that emn business of the Holy Inquisition.

passed around the fair vender of elegant
From this room we proceeded to the articles, was a young gentleman of much right, and obtained access to small cells, assurance, who gazed upon the lady with extending the entire length of the edifice; offensive freedom, and affected to admire and here such sights were presented as we the various articles exposed for sale, but bought nothing. 'What will you please to buy, sir?' finement where the wretched objects of in- asked Miss Λ., with a smile of peculiar

'Oh,' replied the exquisite, with a languishing look, 'what I most wish to purchase is unhappily not for sale.' 'Perhaps it is,' said the lady.

No, no, I dare not declare my wishes, ' Nevertheless,' said Miss A., 'let me know what you wish to buy.'

scissors immediately clipped off one of her beautiful locks, and handed it to the astonished youth, remarked that 'the price astonished youth, remarked youth, remarke

Her bold admirer was thunderstruck at this time a group had collected, and were the hair, and paid over the five hundred

REVERSING THE ENGINE.—The editor of ty.

When a young couple in New York, housekeeping in a dream of blissful anticipations.

little house, one fine summer's evening .and had gone home.

They awakened with the early birds .-Dr. Simmons dreamed that somebody was his wife of seventeen; 'shall we make a tea, of which he was very fond. But he beginning now: rise early, and attend to made a wry face. business?

get breakfast.'

hands very black; her hair was poweded cup of tea:' and he did. with ashes. It was plain that she had soon be ready.'

Well he waited. He read, then he up for all. 'Well then, since you insist upon it, I should like a ringlet of your glossy black hair.'

The lady manifested no embarrassment at the bold request, but, with a pair of at the bold request, but, with a pair of at the bold request. But, with a pair of at the bold request. But, with a pair of at the bold request. But, with a pair of at the bold request. But, with a pair of at the bold request. But, with a pair of at the bold request. But, with a pair of at the bold request. But, with a pair of the sign to the learned sugwhistled, then he fidgeted, then he wound inquired the doctor cautiously.

'Oh, not very. The fire did not kindle well at first, and the stove smoked.'

'Did you open the damper ?'

'Damper? why no. Has it got a damplooked rather hard at it; and then at Lot- this-

'Well, what is it? I'm sure I don't know what makes it so full of those 'Yet it don't seem to be settled. Did making the coffee and toast?"

in the Inquisition. We found splendid ment was then placed between two beams, in due time a builder, contractor and fore- and put them with a nice spare-rib of Darling Lopty. paintings, and a rich and extensive libra- in which were scores of knives, so fixed handed-man. His wife was as industri- fresh pork into the kettle, and set them to ry. Here was beauty and splendor, and that, by turning the machine with a crank, the most perfect order on which my eyes the flesh of the sufferer was torn from his had ever rested. The architecture-the proportions were perfect. The ceilings and floors of wood were scoured and highly exterior was a beautiful woman, or large was necessary to make the smartest and of an unpleasant odor; she snuffed, and History affords striking illustrations of the polished. The marble pavements were and obtained his ride, was about to arranged with a strict regard to order.— ready to embrace its victim. Around her love with her—which he did.

Of an unpleasant odor; she snuffed, and influence which trivial occurrences have fire upon Adam, a ball from the gun of wondered, and then put in the eye of the poroquet. But the unpleasant odor be exerted upon national affairs. Every day the foremost one. Andrew Poe. Adam's Of course he did. He was a medical came stronger and at last she thought the lives of thousands of our fellow citizens brother, entered his breast.

that parlor, one of the most delightful places in the world.

That is a fact—if you want to come home hungry, the table was cracked, but the doctor had just important results were suspended from every inquisitor and soldier of the value of a dollar, go and labor in the come home hungry, the table was set and inquisition should be put to the torture.

But Col. DeLile was not so ready as

But Col. DeLile was not so ready as

That is a fact—if you want to come home hungry, the table was set and inquisition should be put to the torture.

Well—it was a love affair, all mutual and pleasant: boquets, long Sunday even—and pleasant: boquets, long Sunday even—and pleasant: boquets, long Sunday even—the flash of a gun.

That is a fact—if you want to come home hungry, the table was set and inquisition should be put to the torture.

Lotty took her place at the head of the doctor had just important results were suspended from every inquisitor and soldier of the value of a dollar, go and labor in the dinner was dished.

Lotty took her place at the head of the doctor had just important results were suspended from every inquisitor and soldier of the value of a dollar, go and labor in the dinner was dished.

Lotty took her place at the head of the day wing—the sound of a footfall—the flash of a gun. myself to relinquish our investigation, and not oppose them : they might have turned ings, and finally "ask Pa!"-and then a table. She was flushed, and nervous, and of a gun.

Well, Lotty, what is it ?" 'I'm afraid the dinner is not very nice.' to the dissatisfaction of the Inquisitors, others to kiss her, and now you must do and a careful examination was made of it. They interlocked their bayonets so 'Well, darling, what's the trouble ?'

break it, but it did not break readily. Mrs. Jones seen them all properly fixed Then he tried his knife. It cut like cheese; thundering on the door, to call him up to had been no acid to neutralize the salara- lows on the river benk. He believed the see a patient. It was his horse pawing to tus, and set free its carbonic acid, and of Indians were secreted near the crossing course nothing to make the cakes rise. 'Well Lotty dear,' said the grave doc- The doctor explained it all very learnedly, tor, who was in his twenty-third year, to and then as he felt dry, took a sip of his Lotty was in consternation. 'Is not the 'Oh. by all means. I'll jump up and tea right? It must be! I put in a great shore to prevent the current from bearing tions.' 'And I'll feed Pomp, and weed the gar- if it hasn't got the strength, it soon will have.' So the doctor watered and fed his horse 'My Darling Lotty, tea is a delicate and the priming of his gun and crept up the see how Lotty was getting on with break- Bring me a little tea, darling, and some hot embarkation. fast. Her face was very red, and her water; and I will soon make me a good. For a moment the hunter intently listrouble; but she spoke pleasantly for all the endeavments of a tender husband in came to his ears. He stretched himself that, when she said:

the honeymoon to keep her from cownright over the cliff. Below, in confidential con-'Do go away, Charles, that's a dear, till despair. But the day's lesson had not versation, sat two Indians. One was of A rogue asked for charity on pretence of you hear the bell ring. Breakfast will been lost, and she had determined to a high stature and strong frame, with a being dumb. A lady having asked him, Morning came; and our young doctor said, lid ring, and he went to breakfast.

Gestions of the evening previous. She his face, and the sight covered the foe, that he had not been guilty of a violation of the new law, and claimed the right of > down in triumph. The doctor broke a biscuit—it was Instantly both the warriors were on did you put in the coffee ?"

'Ah! toast; let us try that. A little Lotty had invited an old school friend to terously dodged that he received it on his Their intention, no doubt, was to make us think that their defence was wholly unthorised by them, hoping, if they could make us believe they were friendly, they should have a better opportunity, in the confusion of the moment, to escape. Their confusion of the moment, to escape. The confusion of the moment, to escape. The confusion of the moment, to escape. The confusion of the moment of the c

From the Genius of the West.

The Hunter's Disappointment.

Great events depend often on small ones, just as Big Foot, who had reached the vain. The holy fathers assured us that they had been belied; that we had seen all, girls of infernal cruelty, kindled the rage and erotchet-work, and he came to think and erotchet-work, and he came to think traced. In primitive or pioneer times, and I was prepared to give up the search, of the soldiers to fury. They declared that parlor, one of the most delightful that parlor, one of the most delightful that parlor, one of the was cracked, but the doctor had just important results were suspended from every inquisitor and soldier of the places in the world.

—and such a cloud of steam! The kettered. In primitive or pioneer times, the was cracked, but the doctor had just important results were suspended from every inquisitor and soldier of the places in the world.

said to me, "Colonel, you are in com- their arms against him, if he had attempted wedding—but of course the diplomas came ready for a fit of hysterics; but the doctor The backwoods hunters were accustomed lars in that way, how much less dissipation mand to-day, and as you say, so it must to arrest their work. They began with first, and the petted child of the success- was so chearful, and tender, that she be- to calculate the probabilities of unforseen and crime we would witness every day. So be; but if you will be advised by me, the holy fathers. The first they put to let this marble floor be examined. Let death in the machine for breaking joints.—

ful carpenter, became Mrs. Dr. Simmons, who had received dinner. It did not seem exactly right; it were consequently stimulated in a high dethe honors of a medical student, rather seemed to have caught at the bottom of gree, while their invention of quick ex- our large cities; had to earn their dollars by young, and thought it needful to raise all the kettle, the doctor said then the pota- pedients in the event of accident, was keenly making shirts at ten cents apiece, how much passes more freely than others." I re- was most excrutiating. The poor man the whiskers he could by industrious shav- toes were boiled into a pulp; while the sharpened. The renown which many Hun- less finery would be seen about them, how plied to him, 'Do as you please, Colonel,' cried out in agony to be taken from the ing, and a course of Macasser, and to beets and turnips were quite haid. The ters achieved was won chiefly from the fact much more truthful norions would they that though no more bold or vigorous, have of the duties of life, and their ohliga-'Charles, dear ?' said Lotty very sadly. though no more cautious or shrewd than tion to the rest of the world. others in preparation, when attacking or resisting their foes, they were ingeniously 'Well, it is a little scorched, and not apt at extricating themselves from unex-

In 1780 Adam Poe was renowned as a bold hunter and a successful Indian fighter. He courted dangerous exploits, and coveted peril. He was thoroughly inured to Lotty ran into the kitchen and there forest hardships, was tall, well-formed, 'apple pie order;' and no young couple, was her poor, forgotten plum-pudding, in athletic and suple. He had often heard An Albany lady (a lady of experience) the stove oven just burnt to a cinder. It of Big Foot,' a Wyandott Indian, who contends that a kiss on the forehead de ficers with their swords, and the soldiers and he left the soldiers to wreak their was as black as coal; a fine carbonacious was the terror of any settlements, and he notes reverence for the intellect; a kiss on with their bayonets, seeking to clear out vengeance on the last guilty inmate of that ... When the doctor learnedly reher own work. Help was a dreadful both- marked; as he finished, or rather made his trailhe would follow it until he had matched the beauty of the kissed one: but that a his cunning and strength with that of the kiss imprinted on the lips shows love.

soldiers mounted, who carried latterns, the priests remonstrated against our desc- were broken open, and multitudes hastened thing that is ever taught to young ladies. took comfort in the brilliant plumage of During the summer of 1782, seven Wythe priests remonstrated against our deserment of sentiment of sentiment, as will be seen by crating their holy and beautiful house. To the spot. And oh, what a meeting was While thus engaged, a soldier, who was there! It was like a resurrection! About striking with the butt of his musket, a hundred of those who had been buried stricking with the butt of his musket, a number of those who had been buried struck a spring, and the marble slab flew for many years, were now restored to life. and wax flowers were wonderful, so were meal was tea, which she felt sure she could settlements. Adam Poc was in the vicinher water-color drawings, and her mono- accomplish. And when the hour drew ity, and when he was informed of Big chromatic sketches were 'high-art.' Ev- nigh sue made up a fire; and by this time Foot's exploits, he gathered a small band s'o'l remember that polkas, waltzes, and she had learned to manage that. Then of Hunters and pursued the tawny foes, similar institutions were not inveated to But somehow, Mrs. Jones, from the ha- she took some flour, milk and butter, with The Hunters knew the strength and skill give opportunity to hing the ladies, but as bit of doing everything herself, had not plenty of salaratus to make them light, and daring of the warriors whom they a means to display grace, agility, power of stepped to the altar, and took from the among the multitude. The scene was such given Miss Charlotte a fair chance in kitch- and mixed up some biscuits; and put them pursued, but each had experience, and endurance, etc. I Important distinction. en and laundry, and in other housekeeping in the oven, and then she made tea; and each followed his leader with confidence, this, and true as the primer. accomplishments; while Charlotte had a when all was ready she rang the bell with vague idea that all those common things great curphasis. And, truth to say, the for trail. He conducted the pursuit with were perfectly easy, and as they were not table was very richly arranged, and the energy, but thoughtful caution, until the taught at school, she concluded that they came by nature. She commenced her ful. known crossing place, turned back into the woods. Poe had feared that the In- main point. Dr. Simmons smacked his lips with dians would cross the river before he They took possesseon of their own nice great gusto. He took a cake, and tried to could overtake them. Now, he was re-day in Cincinnati, endeavoring to pick a also, it was very yellow, and smelt, and He keenly examined the trail, then direct- hand in.

tasted rather strongly, rhe doctor said, of ed his companions to cautiously follow it free alkali. So it did, in fact, for there while he crept through a cluster of wilplace. Quietly and watchfully he crept forward until he had a fair view of the spot from which barks and canoes were launched, and at which they were loaded. Two canoes empty and apparently desert- a culprit to a hangman. 'Oh! never mind ed were dragged far enough out upon the this once, it will soon suspend its operadeal, and boiled it ever so long. I'm sure, them away. Adam's quick perceptions assured him that the owners of these canoes were not far distant. He examined cup of tea: and he did. tened—his attention, in a particular di-The poor Darling Lotty. It took all rection was aroused. A low murmur have such a nice breakfast as should make native dignity in his bearing which mark- with equal simplicity and humanity how ed him as a leader. To himself, Poe long he had been dumb, he was thrown clock. The coffee was clear—greatest life that Big Foot's hour had come. He being tried by the old, on the ground that comfort of all. She rang the bell, and sat pulled the trigger—the priming flashed in he got drunk under the old law, and hadn't the pan!

capital. The egg was just right. Then their feet. They were warned of danger, he tasted the coffee—and it came out of but not of its character. Poe did not give bank bill, says the vignette is cattle and young doctors particularly. They know which had hidden him from the view of good illustration of the world. what bad tastes and bad smells are; but the Indians, and with all his might, throw- Let she wittiest thing be said in socie this—
"Why Charley!" cried the Darling Foot so violently that the giant Indian present who for the life of him cannot see Lotty, what's the matter with the coffee?" was hurled to the ground. Down went the point of it." "That is what I would like to know .- Poe with him and the warrior grasped the Lotty, I know you do your best, and the hunter and cried to the other Indian to kill biscuits and eggs are beautiful; but what him. When the savage hastened with wou like best? id you put in the coffee?" uplifted tomahawk to obey his compan"Why Charley, you said it must have ion's call, Poe gave him a kick which sent

'Hard! Now how can they be hard, the coffee !" and poor Lotty burst into a time the lesser Indian had again approach selves in the language of rebuke to their oom on the left. Here we found the inown soldiers, saying, "Why do you fight truments of torture, of every kind which on THE PERILS OF HOUSEKEEPING. When they were boiling all the time I was paroxysm of tears. But there came sunshine that made it all pleasant weather .- settled the hunter's fate, had he not so dexartifice was too shallow and did not succeed. I caused them to be placed under guard, and all the soldiers of the Inquisition to be secured prisoners. We then anyway. Over the box was a vessel, from to be secured prisoners. We then anyway. Over the box was a vessel, from the substance of the secured prisoners. We then anyway. Over the box was a vessel, from the substance of the secured prisoners. We then anyway. Over the box was a vessel, from the substance of the secured prisoners. We then anyway. Over the box was a vessel, from the substance of the secured prisoners. We then anyway. Over the box was a vessel, from the substance of the secured prisoners. We then anyway. Over the box was a vessel, from the substance of the substance of the secured prisoners. We then anyway. Over the box was a vessel, from the substance of the s tion to be secured prisoners. We then procedeed to examine all the rooms of the stately edifice. We passed through room after room; found all perfectly in order, richly furnished, with altars and crucifixwas to make up for the breakfast. The the aid of his venerable appearance, and where each exerted himself to drown the es, and wax candles in abundance, but could discover no evidence of inquity being practiced there—nothing of those peculiar features which we expected to find culiar features which we expected to find could represent the sufference of the breakfast. The doctor liked a nice dish of boiled victims was to make up for the breakfast. The was to make up for the breakfast. The doctor liked a nice dish of boiled victims and enterprising carpenter, and was never tired of that they could not keep foot-hold, and which the victim was bound; this instrudeep water and were compelled to relax their grasp upon each other or drown to-

The hunters who had followed the trail, came to Adam's aid at this juncture, and shore and obtained his ride, was about to

A lady advertises in the London Times for the address of another lady, with whom she was at school more than twenty years ago, that she may return to her old schoolfellow the half crown which she stole from the store-room, and the sin of which burthens her conscience.

Bachelors are not entirely lost to the refinement of sentiment, as will be seen by much abused fraternity, at a celebration : 'Ladies Sweet briars in the garden of life.'

Y sunggentlemen of poetic temperament parts: supposition, proof, and denial .-Supposition is nothing; proof is next to impossible; and to deny everything is the joiced to discover evidences that the war- man's pocket. He said he wasn't used to riors would soon be brought to a stand. the business, and was just trying to get his

An advocate having lately gained a suit for a poor young lady, she remarked, 'I have not anything to pay you with, sir, but my heart.'

'Hand it over to the clerk, if you please. I wish no fee for myself,' he replied. 'I don't like to patronise this line,' said

Some of the young ladies say that the times are so hard that young men can't and hoed the potatoes a little, and then odoriferous plant; and should be prepared steep bank until he had gained a jutting An editor out west offers his whole print-took a peep into the neat little kitchen to as an infusion, and not as a decoction. cliff which almost overhung the point of ing establishment, subscribers, and all, for a good meal of victuals. The following question is now being debated out west: 'Which is the most diffi-off his guard, and answered-"From my been sober since! The judge was puzzled and held the case over for advisement. hogs, with a church in the distance-a

'Jane, what letter in the alphabet do Well, I don't like to say, Mr. Wrigh 'Poh! nonsense; tell right out, Jane;